

of Science Degree in Mathematical Science (Statistics Option) and Masters of Science Degree in Biometry both from the University of Development Studies, Ghana. He has been a research team member in a lot of projects at the institute and currently engaged in the design of a robust M&E system for the institute to monitor project activities.