

Akira Higashida is Associate Professor at Meijo University. His doctoral thesis is on the expansion of MFCA into supply chain. Since 2005, he has taught Environmental Accounting, Management Accounting. His research interests are mainly focused on the Environmental or Sustainable Management and the role of accounting to support this.