

BIOGRAPHY

Hamed Emami is currently a project manager in a leading company in Iranian water treatment industry; Zharf Kare Jam. Mr. Emami holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Engineering from Shahid Bahonar University of Kerman and a Master of Business Administration degree, specialized in finance. He also holds an official PMP degree awarded on Dec. 2010 and extended till date. He has managed almost 5 local projects of water treatment plants in Iran within his 7-year working experience. His projects conclude with average extra rate of return of 14% and average allowed delay of 6 months.

Maryam Rahimi Tehrani is currently head of finance division in DejDis Sepahan company a specialized firm in civil constructions. Mrs. Tehrani holds a Bachelor degree of statistics science and a Master of Business Administration Degree from Multimedia University of Malaysia, specialized in multimedia finance. She is a member of managerial board and also serves as senior management consultant for over 6 years.